COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course traces the history and examines the literature of the Israelite people from the division of the kingdom through the development of Judaism. Topics treated include canon, criticism, content, interpretation, and unity of the Old Testament. Three hours.

COURSE PURPOSE AND OBJECTIVES:

The mission of Erskine Theological Seminary is to “educate persons for service in the Christian Church.” To achieve this mission, the ability to understand the Bible in various contexts must be taught. These contexts include the Bible’s ancient Near Eastern cultural setting, the immediate context of the literary unit in question, the context of the book of the Bible at issue or the OT as a whole, its canonical context admitting the light of the NT that points to Christ, and the context of the whole counsel of God that includes the implications of the Word today. This course will seek to raise the students’ awareness of how to read the OT in these various contexts. Specifically:

1. This course will expose the student to the history and geography of the OT. Many of the names and places should become clear, and the timeline of events should crystallize the student’s understanding of the progress of redemption. Along the way, insights from comparative studies will be discovered.
2. At appropriate points in the study of the material, the questions that generations of modern scholars have asked of the text will be raised and their answers supplied and critiqued. The strengths and weaknesses of these approaches will be considered, including the “grammatical-historical” method of interpretation.
3. The student will gain adeptness at relating the OT revelation to its fulfillment in Christ’s person and work. How the NT influences our reading of the Old is an important consideration in this course. The centrality of the gospel and the culmination of all the OT motifs and themes in Jesus will be discussed.

4. Finally, the importance of the OT in the formation of our contemporary theology, character, and wisdom will be placed before the student.

By the end of the course, the student should be able to:

1. Identify the major geographical features and national entities of the ancient Near East during the period covered by the Biblical books studied.
2. Outline the major events of Israel's history.
3. Describe the various approaches to the OT, their results and the reigning paradigms for present-day study of the Hebrew Bible.
4. Describe the contents and theology of each book from 1 Kings through Malachi.

ERSKINE DISTANCE EDUCATION NETWORK (EDEN):

This course utilizes Erskine's EDEN website as a place to make a number of required class resources available to you. Thus, you will need frequent access to a computer with a reliable internet connection. If you have never used the EDEN site before then see the directions below on how to set up an account (Appendix A). After you have set up an account and are officially registered for the course then you will need an enrollment key in order to access the OT 502 CO online classroom (this key is available from the instructor). Students must have their EDEN accounts set up by the first class session. As soon as you have registered for the course you should check the online classroom for important information pertaining to the class. The OT 502 CO course is listed under the "hybrid" classrooms on EDEN:

<http://hybrid.erskineseminary.net/>

REQUIRED TEXTBOOKS:

Students continue to be responsible for securing their own required textbooks. As a convenience, there is a bookstore on the seminary's home page. To access this site and its information, locate textbooks, and compare prices, go to:

<http://www.erskineseminary.org/bookstore.html>

A limited number of copies of each textbook will be available from the Erskine Campus Bookstore, and copies may be ordered through that Bookstore.

PLEASE NOTE: When ordering a book that has been published in more than one edition, make certain that you acquire the correct one (check the ISBN number when ordering); do not attempt to substitute an older edition of a required textbook.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS AND GRADING:

Your final grade will be based upon the following factors:

A. Historical Books Exam: This exam focuses on 1 Kings 12-Esther and is worth 25% of your course grade. A study guide will be provided by the instructor.

B. Poetry and Wisdom Books Exam: This exam focuses on Job through the Song of Songs and is worth 25% of your course grade. A study guide will be provided by the instructor.

C. Prophetic Books Exam: This exam focuses on Isaiah through Malachi and is worth 25% of your course grade. A study guide will be provided by the instructor. This exam will be given on May 10.

D. Course Readings: 15%

You are required to read the Bible from 1 Kings 12 through Malachi in its entirety, as well as to complete a number of readings in secondary sources. A reading check list (see Appendix B below) must be turned in at the final exam session on May 10.

E. Class Attendance & Participation: 10%

1. You will be held responsible for all material presented in class, regardless of whether you were present or not. If you miss class, it is your responsibility to get notes

2. You are expected to attend every class meeting. You are allowed one absence without penalty. After the first absence, your course grade will be reduced by 2% for each absence.

OVERALL GRADING SCALE:

100-95	A	85-84	C+	71-70	D-
94-93	A-	83-80	C
92-91	B+	79-78	C-	69-0	F
90-88	B	77-76	D+
87-86	B-	75-72	D

CLASSROOM EXPECTATIONS AND SEMINARY POLICIES:

Registration: Once a student has completed, signed, and submitted his/her registration to the Registrar for this class, it is a binding contract, and billing will be based on this registration. If the student decides not to take this class, he/she must complete a “drop/add” form and secure the appropriate signatures prior to the drop/add deadline during the second week of the semester or term. If one wishes to withdraw from the course after the drop/add deadline, one must complete a withdrawal form, and tuition will be refunded on a pro rated basis. Failure to withdraw from the class properly will result in the student's receiving a grade of "F" for the course, and full tuition charges will apply. No exceptions will be made to this policy.

Official Seminary Class Attendance Policy and Policy on Absences: Class participation is considered an important part of the total educational experience at Erskine Seminary. Students are expected to attend classes on a regular basis and are responsible for the mastery of all materials required in the course. In general, students are allowed up to three hours of unexcused absence without penalty. Students taking a class that meets four times over a semester/term must attend the first meeting of the class. Students who cannot attend the first course meeting should not register for the course or, if already registered, should drop the course and complete the drop/add form. (If the drop/add form is not completed and turned in to the Registrar, the student will still be charged for the course and will receive an "F" grade.) If students have to be absent for part or all of another class meeting day, they are still responsible for all work missed and all work due. A student who misses as much as one full class day or its equivalent in late arrival or early departure should consult with the professor to see whether it is still possible to pass the course. Sleeping in class is counted as an absence. NOTE: missing a session of an all-day course will result in an automatic 5% reduction in your overall grade. If you are aware of any conflicts that will prevent you from attending one of the class sessions, you should register for a different section or take the course at another time.

Late and/or Incomplete Work: Any work not submitted by the due date will be assessed a late penalty. Students should review the Seminary policy on "Incompletes" in the Seminary catalog. The grade of "I" or incomplete is given at the discretion of the professor. A grade of "I" is normally given when a student has substantially completed the requirements for a course but has been prevented by extraordinary circumstances from completing the remainder of the course requirements. A student who wishes to request an incomplete should normally complete an incomplete form prior to the end of the semester and ask the professor to grant the request. (Under unusual circumstances, the student may communicate with the professor by phone or email rather than in person, and the professor may then agree to fill out the form at the student's request. Under exceptional circumstances, the professor may initiate the process by filling out the form on the student's behalf.) If the professor grants the request, he/she will sign the incomplete form and turn it in with his/her final grade report. An "I" in any course must be removed by March 1 for the Fall Term, April 1 for the January Term, August 1 for the Spring Term, and November 1 for the Summer Term. Only the Dean may grant extensions of incompletes beyond the established completion date. Otherwise, these grades automatically become "F."

Plagiarism: Any student who commits plagiarism is in violation of Seminary policy and is liable for dismissal. See the academic section of the Catalog for complete information.

Language about God and Humanity: Although God transcends the distinction between male and female, the Bible and the Church's historic creeds and confessions use masculine language in reference to God. Thus, the Seminary encourages all students to retain this masculine usage when speaking and writing about God. Furthermore, the Seminary recognizes that all human beings, male and female, are created equally in the image of God (Gen. 1:26-27), and believers of both sexes are fellow heirs of the grace of life (1 Pet. 3:7). Accordingly, whenever students are speaking and writing about males and females, they should use language that clearly includes both men and women (for example, by saying/writing "humanity" rather than "man" or "people" rather than "men").

Conduct in Theological Discussions: Erskine Seminary is committed to the one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church, and it expects its students to show respect for all who identify with that one Church. In all written work, oral presentations, and discussions both inside and outside the classroom, the Seminary expects students to conduct discussions of controversial issues in a context of respect for those with whom one disagrees. Please see the Community Life Statement in the Catalog for more information.

Style and Bibliographical Formatting Requirements: All written assignments must be typed/processed (12-point type, double-spaced, one-inch margins) and fully documented, following the standards in the “Style and Form Standards” (Erskine Seminary).

Taping Class Lectures: I am hoping to tape the class lectures and post them onto the EDEN classroom. If you wish to tape a lecture using your own recording device, you must complete an “Audio Recording Request” form, which can be downloaded from the Seminary website at:

http://www.erskineseminary.org/Academics_Files/PdfDownloads.html

COURSE SCHEDULE, READING ASSIGNMENTS, AND EXAM DATES:

[TBA – check the Seminary website at a later date for an updated syllabus]

Appendix A: First time EDEN users

If you have never created an EDEN account, please complete the following steps to access to the online classroom.

If you have taken an EDEN course previously, go to the web site listed below and enter your user name and password.

1. Go to the online classroom website: <http://eden.erskineseminary.net/>
2. Select the term for which you are enrolled.
3. Read carefully the text under the heading “Is this your first time here?” Click on the “Start now by creating a new account” button.
4. An email will be immediately sent to the email address you entered in the new account form. When it arrives read the email and click on the web link it contains. Your account will be confirmed and you will be logged in. This must be done in a timely manner – the confirmation will not stay for long in the system.
5. Find the course for which you are enrolled.
6. Enter the enrollment key in order to access the online classroom. You will be provided this key upon confirmation by the Registrar’s office.

 Notes:

- The enrollment key and your user name and password are different. Do not attempt to use one for the other.
- It is recommended that you write down your user name and password so that it won’t be forgotten. The EDEN office cannot provide you with this information.
- Please do not share the enrollment key with other students.
